

Leaving a Legacy: Making a gift through your will

A charitable bequest is written into a will or trust and directs a gift to be made to Victory Ministries of Alaska upon your death.

A charitable bequest may help you save estate taxes by providing your estate with a charitable deduction for the value of the gift. Please consult your legal counsel.

One of the greatest benefits of a charitable bequest to Victory Ministries of Alaska is that it enable you an opportunity to use your legacy to ensure a lasting impact for Christ for many years after your gift is received.

Restricted Gift

I give to Victory Ministries of Alaska , a 501c3 nonprofit corporation residing in the State of Alaska, with the tax ID number of 92-0143034, _____ (insert sum of money or percentage of estate here), to be used for _____ (insert the purpose for which the money is to be used here).

If in the future there is no longer a need for the funds as they are specified in the will, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of Victory Ministries of Alaska, then the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, use the gift for the fulfillment of such other tax exempt charitable purpose keeping in mind the intended wishes as set forth above.

Informing Victory Ministries of your gift

It is an honor for Victory Ministries of Alaska to be chosen as the recipient of such a thoughtful gift. Such gifts help create a strong financial foundation upon which we can continue to our mission of connecting people of all ages with God through the ministry of Christian camping and conference retreats. We hope that you will notify us so that we may properly express our appreciation for your generosity.
