

Guide to Making a Charitable Bequest

A charitable bequest is written into a will or trust and directs a gift to be made to the charity of your choice, upon your death. When you set up a charitable bequest it may help you save estate taxes by providing your estate with a charitable deduction for the value of the gift. Please consult your legal counsel.

One of the greatest benefits of a charitable bequest to Victory Ministries of Alaska is that it provides you an opportunity to use your legacy to ensure a lasting impact for Christ for many years to come.

Should you decide to make a charitable bequest to Victory Ministries of Alaska, please use the language below:

Restricted Gift. I give to Victory Ministries of Alaska , a 501c3 nonprofit corporation residing in the State of Alaska, with the tax ID number of 92-0143034, _____(insert sum of money or percentage of estate here), to be used for _____ (insert the purpose for which the money is to be used here). If in the future there is no longer a need for the funds as they are specified in the will, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of Victory Ministries of Alaska, then the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, use the gift for the fulfillment of such other tax exempt charitable purpose keeping in mind the intended wishes as set forth above.

It is always an honor for Victory Ministries of Alaska to be chosen as the recipient of such an intentional gift. These gifts create a strong financial foundation upon which we can continue our mission to evangelize and disciple children and youth in Alaska for Jesus Christ through Christian camping. Please notify us of your gift so that we may express our appreciation for your generosity, and record it properly.
